

PROMINENT LAWYER, PUBLIC OFFICIAL

William H. Shambaugh (1856-1927) native of Allen County, was one of Fort Wayne's distinguished lawyers, state representative, and for twelve years Fort Wayne city attorney.

While city attorney, Mr. Shambaugh became so efficient in municipal law that he was chosen to write the 1894 Fort Wayne Municipal Charter. He served on the Fort Wayne School Board from 1910 to 1926.

Mr. Shambaugh attended Normal School at Lebanon, O., and Valparaiso University, before entering law practice here. He was a director and attorney for the Lincoln National Bank & Trust Co., and counsel for a number of manufacturing firms.
