

CAREER AWARENESS WORKSHOPS

Mar. 24

6-7 P.M.

Sport Management

Presenter: Professor Craig Dyer

Register: forms.gle/ZbhyS3DPHiGFEFZt5

Do you watch sports? Do you like fitness? Do you enjoy competition? Do you love competing on the athletic field? Do you bleed your favorite team's colors? If sports play this significant of a role in your life, a career in sport management might be exactly what you are looking for. Sports teams and athletic facilities need savvy business professionals to keep them organized and operating efficiently. This workshop will introduce students to the field of sport management. Sport management is the management of all businesses, products and processes that relate to sport products throughout the world.

Mar. 31

6-7 P.M.

Accounting

Presenter: Professor Lisa Brown

Register: forms.gle/TXxjXWojMTeWqF6G7

Do you like being organized? Do you like working with numbers? Do you enjoy working puzzles? If so, a career in accounting might be for you! Accountants work in every industry. They work in large accounting firms, own their own businesses and even work for the FBI! Accountants tell the story of business, help executives make decisions, prepare taxes for individuals and businesses and even detect fraud. There are so many things accountants can do and so many places accountants can work. This workshop will introduce you to the exciting world of accounting!

Participants will be given a certificate of completion and Tech swag for attending each virtual workshop.